Blessing

Genesis 12:1-3, Matthew 5:1-12

In Genesis 12, what does God mean by: “I will bless you”?

What does he mean by: “all peoples on earth will be blessed through you”?

What is a covenant?

Are God and Abram bound by this transaction?

If yes, in what way?

If you could sum up the message of the first chapters of Genesis, what do they teach us about God?

In Matthew 5, blessed means:

Do the descriptions in the Beatitudes sound like blessing?

What does it look like for us to bless someone?

Jesus said in Matt. 5:11: “Blessed are you when people persecute you.”

Romans 12:14 is stronger yet: “Bless those who persecute you.”

Are those just metaphors? Or something we need to live out?
