

Servant Leadership

1 Timothy 3:1-13

In James 3:1 we read this admonition: “Not many of you should become teachers... because we who teach will be judged more strictly.”

Do you agree that in God’s kingdom, some believers should have a different standard of judgment, different criteria of evaluation than others?

Does this give license to those who are not church leaders, to be slack in their obedience?

What lessons do we learn from this passage about the local church?

1) What the Lord of the church desires:

2) What leaders should desire:

3) What we should desire in the lives of our leaders:

4) What the devil desires:

Hope-work: write a prayer for your life, your family, our local church, and its leaders –