Service: The Others-Centered Life

Philippians 2:1-4

We often hear that modern people are self-centered. Do you think that is more true of us today, than it was in the past?

By what criteria would you judge whether you are self-centered?

As Paul describes being 'others-centered', what things does he say should characterize our life together?

What things does he say should not be a part of our life together?

If you feel you are being selfless but others are being selfish, what usually happens?

In the US in 2019, do we look at the local church in a selfish way?

Action steps: how can I personally live out this passage?
