Just as Christ Accepted You

Romans 4:1 > 15:13

Why does Paul refer to believers with strong faith, and weak faith? Is he complimenting some and criticizing others?

Rom. 12:1 mentions 'disputable matters', and some are listed; what would those be today?

When we have divergent convictions in the local church, how are we instructed to deal with those?

What verse in this passage is the central point Paul is teaching?

Romans 15:7 says we need to accept one another just as Christ accepted us. That requires us to know the answer to this question: how did/does Jesus Christ accept us?
