

Series: Without Question, # 1
In the Beginning

Most literature is written to draw our attention to the most important concept, immediately; thus, the first page, paragraph, or sentence is vital. God's revelation to us starts with these three words: In the beginning. Ponder what God intends for us to understand, by that introduction.

When you hear the word theology, what comes to mind? Have you ever studied it? Does it seem like it's probably boring? What should motivate us to "study" God?

Write down questions you have about God:

Why is faith an essential when we talk about God?

GOD

Who is God?

God is the creator and sustainer of everyone and everything. He is eternal, infinite, and unchangeable in his power and perfection, goodness and glory, wisdom, justice and truth. Nothing happens except through him and by his will.

Psalms 86:8-10, 15

Prayer: Our Creator and Sustainer, everything holds together in you. The smallest creature is known to you, and the mightiest army is at your command. You rule with justice. Help us to trust your goodness in all that you will. Amen.

How many persons are there in God?

There are three persons in the one true and living God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. They are the same in substance, equal in power and glory.

2 Corinthians 13:14

Prayer: Father, Son and Spirit, you are beyond our understanding. Thank you for bringing us into your love, a love that existed before the world in your three perfect persons. Amen.
