

Come Together    1 Corinthians 11:17-28

The life of a believer in Jesus is really a merger of two lives:

- 1)
- 2)

In NT teaching, is one of these two more important than the other?

What things in the Christian life:

Can/should be done privately, individually?

Need to be done corporately, as a church?

Some reasons we celebrate Communion together are:

Paul confronts abuses happening in the church of Corinth. Does anything similar happen today? How do we avoid divisions in the body?

“Everyone ought to examine themselves” vs. 28 – describe what Paul suggests we should examine as we come to the table...
