

When we consider Jesus, it is hard to ignore David, King of Israel.

Luke 2 > Joseph and Mary went to _____, the town of David

2 Samuel 5:7 > _____ is known as the City of David

Isaiah 9:6-7 > prophecy that _____ would sit on the throne of David

Mark 10:47-48 > Jesus is called _____ of David

So clearly, in the estimation of the Jewish people, David is a prominent figure

His name occurs almost _____ times in the OT, approx. 60 times in the NT

The story of his life we find in the Bible tells of David as:

Shepherd	Fearless, killed both lion and bear
Killed the Philistine giant Goliath	Skilled musician
Poet	Military general
Close friend of Jonathan	Worshipper
Sinner	Repentant when confronted

Much of the Biblical narrative involves his complicated family life:

_____ siblings _____ wives _____ children

His brothers were bitter after he was _____

King Saul gave his daughter to David, and later _____

Committed adultery with _____, then had her husband _____

Some tragic events happened with his children as well

David's poetry has helped believers through the ages, with word pictures that aid our understanding of God – look over Psalms 1 thru 70 and list a few:

Acts 13:22 God testified concerning him: "I have found David son of Jesse a man after my own heart, he will do everything I want him to do." Pray that the Lord will trust you on like that, both on a heart level, and in obedience...
