

Series: Everything I Have Commanded, # 13

Go and Show Kindness

Luke 10:25-37

The story is told to answer a vital question –

Inherit means that salvation cannot come by _____

In this series, we are examining the discipleship journey through the lens of obedience... so let's identify the two commands in this passage:

Vs. 28

Vs. 37

Wedding vows may help us understand this concept:

We start with a declaration of our _____

Then we move to promised _____

And finally we mention the inevitable _____

How does our life in Jesus parallel that progression?

“Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching” John 14:23

“As I have loved you, so you must also love one another” John 13:34

Give an honest self-assessment: do you attempt to ‘justify’ your actions (or inaction), like the teacher of the law did in vs. 29?

Ponder the needy people in your circle of influence today, and write down names of those Jesus is asking you to be a neighbor towards:

What things make you avoid kindness, like the Priest and Levite did?
